PRESIDENT ARRIVES IN BRAZIL

BIG COMMUNIST VOTE IN HUNGARY ELECTION SAID "FRAUD" RESULT

GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCES RESULTS OF POLL WITH COALITION RULE VICTOR

By JACK GUINN
BUDAPEST, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Hungarian foreign office asserted late today that the Communists had polled 1,082,597 of the total of 4,998,688 counted votes in the result which even the Communists' allies said was achieved by fraud. The returns were said to be virtually complete.

The information ministry had announced earlier that the four-party government coalition of the Communists, Social Democrats, Small Holders and National Peasants had polled 63 percent of the ballots cast Sunday for a new parliament.

Although an information ministry spokesman had said earlier no later vote totals would be announced because the people are interested only in percentages, the foreign office did give the totals.

The foreign office said the Democratic People's party, an anti-Communist group headed by Istvan Barankovics, a devout Catholic, was second with 804,950 votes. The Small Holders, which polled 57 per cent of the votes in the last election, were third with 757,029, followed by the Democratic party with 732,178 and the Hungarian Independence party with 718,193.

The announced vote was larger than the 4,717,257 ballots cast in the last election, when the Communists were not in power.

Red Vote 24 Percent. The information ministry, on the basis of 1,339,937 votes in the government count, asserted that the Communists polled 24 per cent, the Social Democrats 16 per cent, the Small Holders 16 and the National Peasants 8 percent.

U.N. ASSEMBLY FIGHT SEEN OVER HOLY LAND COMMISSION'S PLAN

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(AP)—A fight in the United Nations general assembly loomed today over a committee plan to divide Palestine into Arab and Jewish states and admit 150,000 Jewish immigrants in the next two years. The 11-nation U. N. special committee on Palestine last night unanimously recommended a Jewish independence from Britain. The 25-year-old mandate "at the earliest practicable date."

A seven-member majority urged partition of Palestine into Arab and Jewish states and an international city of Jerusalem. The admission of 150,000 Jews into the Jewish territory during the two-year transition period.

3-Year Transition Period. A three-member minority called for a federal Arab-Jewish state and entry of Jews up to the "absorptive capacity" of the Jewish portion during a transition period of up to three years.

The majority would give the Jews Eastern Galilee, the central coast and plain, Haifa, Jaffa and Tel Aviv, and the Beersheba sub-district, including most of the Negev—the southern desert.

It would allow the Arabs western Galilee, the Samaritan and Judean hills country and the southern coast from Isdud to the Egyptian frontier. Haifa and Jaffa, ports, would be operated "in the common interest" under an economic union of the two states. The minority division was somewhat different.

REVOLUTION AGAINST WEEK-OLD ECUADOR GOVERNMENT GROWS

QUITO, Ecuador, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Army and constabulary officers in four states were in revolt today against the week-old government of Col. Carlos Manchengo, who placed all Ecuador under a state of siege and sent troops and tanks acquired through U. S. lend-lease to trouble spots.

The government asserted that Dr. Mariano Suarez Veintimilla, conservative vice president of the ousted regime of President Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra, and Col. Baquerero Davila were leading the revolt. Veintimilla apparently had formed a cabinet with Davila as defense minister.

The government communique acknowledged that troops had rebelled Saturday night at Riobamba, 100 miles south of Quito, in Chimborazo province, and in Guaranda, 20 miles west of Riobamba, in adjoining Bolivar State.

The rebellion was reported joined Sunday night by the garrisons in Latacunga and Ambato, capitals of the provinces of Cotacachi and Tungurahua.

PRISON BOARD HEARS NEW CHARGES, ELECTS

G.I. Bond Cashing To Start Tuesday At Corsicana Banks

Navarro county enlisted men of World War II at 9 a. m. Tuesday can start cashing their long-past-due cash.

The two Corsicana banks were ready to start cashing terminal leave bonds for men below officer grades who were paid in paper rather than money for their unused furlough time.

The bonds can be cashed at any time, but it was believed many of the veterans would be on hand during the first day armed with required identification to give the government back its 2.5 percent notes.

See G.I. BONDS, Page 5

It could not be accurately estimated how much cash would start following.

A war veteran with years of overseas service could run up a sizable amount of cash. The bonds range from less than $100 up to $1,000.

Expression of fear by the U. S. Treasury that sudden release of millions of dollars because of the cashing of the bonds would increase inflation, was answered by the veterans who said that had the money been paid upon discharge as in the case of officers there would not have been an accumulation.

Most of the veterans were believed planning to cash in the past.

Continued Federal Employment of War Workers Assailed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Rep. Rees (R-Kans.) termed it "incredible" today that federal payrolls should contain 911,119 temporary and war service employees nearly two years after war's end.

The chairman of the house civil service committee said despite a 15 per cent cut in appropriations for the fiscal year which began in July, the number of civilian government workers dropped "less than two percent" from June.

The number in July, Rees added, was 2,088,980, compared with 2,129,568 in June and the war time peak of 3,770,000 in June, 1945.

The Kansasian's statement described as "poor management" the "not substantial" June to July drop in federal employment, adding:

"It is apparent the agencies are relying upon their past success in securing huge deficiency appropriations later in the fiscal year. The fallacy of this procedure will be demonstrated when the deficiency requests are made."

(Deficiency appropriations are those provided for in regular appropriation bills. Except in a few instances, the Republican-dominated 80th congress cautioned government agencies against running over the amounts allotted them.)

The government asserted that Dr. Mariano Suarez Veintimilla, conservative vice president of the ousted regime of President Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra, and Col. Baquerero Davila were leading the revolt. Veintimilla apparently had formed a cabinet with Davila as defense minister.

TYLER, JASPER AND BROWNWOOD MEN ARE NAMED AS OFFICIALS

MEMBER ASSERTS "MORE CRIMES COMMITTED IN PRISONS THAN OUTSIDE"

HOUSTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—W. C. Windsor of Tyler was named chairman, and Bronson Morgan of Jasper, vice-chairman and T. R. Harvins of Brownwood, secretary of the Texas prison system board at a meeting here today.

Windsor was nominated by W. Albert Lee, Houston, a member of the board.

J. E. Wheat, Woodville, retiring vice-chairman, issued a statement shortly after the board met, declaring the nomination for the chairmanship and suggesting numerous changes in the operation of the prison system.

At one point in the statement Wheat said that "there are more crimes committed in the Texas prisons than outside."

The statement, in declining the nomination for the chairmanship, demanded cooperation to any new board but asked that Wheat's name be withdrawn.

The following suggestions for improvement of the Texas prison system were made by Wheat.

1—That immediate consideration be given to personnel and that all managers and other employees who have demonstrated their inability to reflect credit on the institution be discharged.

2—That the board and state auditor work out a plan for maintaining a current inventory and daily accounting system in order that the board might exercise more control over the financial affairs of the system.

ATTEMPTED BREAK AT PRISON EARLY MONDAY REPORTED PUT DOWN

HOUSTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—An attempted break by inmates of one of the "tanks" at Darrington prison farm early today was foiled by guards at the farm, W. Albert Lee, member of the Texas prison board, said here. Lee went to the farm early today to investigate the attempted break and returned to Houston to attend the prison board meeting today.

He said the guards at the farm near Angleton in Brazoria county quelled what was almost a riot by firing two shots over the heads of the prisoners.

The attempted break was discovered about 2:30 a. m. today in one of the "tanks" where 80 inmates were housed.

GEN. WAINWRIGHT IS RETIRED

By TOM STONE
SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Forty-five years of distinguished service in the army were only a memory today for Jonathan M. Wainwright, who was retired yesterday at ceremonies at Fort Sam Houston here.

The gallant defender of Bataan led aside his uniform for a military suit as he began his civilian life in his home "Fiddler's Green," in the heart of a fashionable residential district near Fort Sam Houston.

Beginning today he is chairman of the board of directors of the Homestead Food Stores and the British Labor May Accept Government Control In Crisis

By TOM WILLIAMS
SOUTHPORT, Eng., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The general council of the Trades Union Congress, representing 90 percent of Britain's union workers, hinted willingness today to accept rigid direction of labor—a more drastic regulation than so far requested by the Labor government.

A statement circulated by the general council at the opening of the TUC's 79th annual congress warned of the "serious nature" of Britain's economic problems.

Something more stringent than current government powers for limited direction of labor may be necessary, the statement said, declaring:

"If it is found that the application of a control of engagement order does not produce the results required, the general council will be prepared to discuss with the government further measures, including direction of labor, which may be necessary to deal with our national problems."

The statement will be debated tomorrow by the TUC's executive committee, headed by the minister of labor, George Isaacs.

Legion Ends Meet Condemning Reds, Electing Officers

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The American Legion ended its 29th annual convention last night after adopting a militant program against communism, electing James F. O'Neill as national commander and hearing a talk by former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota in support of the Marshall plan for aiding Europe.

O'Neill, now chief of police of his home city, Manchester, N. H., is a veteran of both world wars and a former newspaperman. He succeeded Paul H. Griffith of Uniontown, Pa.

Except for debate on the Marshall plan and on housing, the final all-day business session of the convention consisted largely of resolutions and committee reports in which opposition to communism, both at home and in the international sphere, was the dominant note.

The same note figured in Stassen's remarks. The announced candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, rising on the convention floor to speak against a minority report of the Legion's foreign relations committee, said:

"There are two plans for Europe. One is the Marshall plan. The other is the communist plan. We support the Marshall plan and oppose the communist plan."

Stassen's remarks were met with applause and a standing ovation.

INDUSTRY, GOVERNMENT CLASH ANEW OVER HIGH COSTS, BUYING POWER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The nation's annual observance of Labor Day touched off a fresh administration-industry disagreement over price and wage controls that mean to the working man.

Industry, through N.A.M. President Earl Bunting, said American workers have "a substantially higher actual buying power than they had eight years ago."

But the administration, through Secretary of Labor Schwelbensch, declared the wage earner "has not been able to keep abreast of the cost of living."

N.A.M. Says Labor Costs The cabinet officer, speaking by radio, also took issue with what he described as a widespread effort to blame price advances on wage boosts alone.

But the head of the National Association of Manufacturers contended in a statement that labor costs represent between 75 and 85 per cent of the total expenses which determine final prices.

President Truman himself generally steered clear of issues in immediate controversy in a message made public on the eve of his departure for Rio de Janeiro.

Truman Urges Program Yet he set the stage for many an explosive battle in Capitol Hill next year by calling upon congress to (A) boost the minimum wage in interstate industry, (B) broaden the social security system to bring in many persons not now covered and (C) establish "adequate system of health insurance."

LABOR DAY EVENTS IN DALLAS, DENISON TOP TEXAS CELEBRATIONS

By The Associated Press
Under generally fair skies, most Texas workers took the day off today to celebrate the traditional end-of-summer Labor Day holiday.

CIO workers of North Texas gathered in Dallas for a huge parade and picnic to follow. Denison opened its Diamond Jubilee celebration.

Picnics and parades were scheduled at Galveston, Amarillo, Wichita Falls and Lubbock. Abilene, San Antonio and Ft. Worth scheduled picnics. The 22nd annual Cooke County Fair opened at Gainesville.

LOCAL HOLIDAY QUIET All federal government agencies, courthouses, insurance agencies, banks, post office and many other establishments were closed Monday for Labor Day in addition to the Bethlehem Supply, Corsicana Cotton Mills and other industries employing organized labor.

No parades or program was sponsored in Corsicana, but a number of local labor members went to Dallas to participate in a huge observance there.

Jester Asks Law Trial In Houston, Gov. Beauford H. Jester, in a prepared radio address, called for a fair trial of the nine state labor laws which became effective this week.

"As your governor, I plead for mature statesmanship on the part of both employer and employee in the discharge of collective bargaining," Jester said.

In Dallas, National CIO Secretary James Carey declared open defiance of the Taft-Hartley labor law. At a news conference Sunday, Carey said he intended to "violate the Taft-Hartley law openly and frequently and recommend to labor organizations and labor leaders that they follow suit."

FROST HOMECOMING MONDAY DRAWS HUGE HOLIDAY ATTENDANCE

FROST, Sept. 1.—(Spl.)—One of the largest crowds ever to attend the homecoming celebration here was on hand Monday. The vanguard of ex-residents of Northwest Navarro county arrived Sunday.

At a noon meal were served clippings, beef and all the trimmings, prepared under the direction of Dock Griffin.

A horse show and quarterhouse races were held at the Lakeside park here Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

A loud speaker arrangement was set up at the band stand and the former residents made informal talks, although no formal program was arranged.

U. S. TOLL OVER 250. By The Associated Press.

Accidental deaths during the Labor Day week-end passed the 250 mark today as tourists turned homeward from summer's last big holiday.

Traffic mishaps accounted for 178 of the total of 250, while 35 lost their lives by drowning, and 43 from miscellaneous causes — 12 of them in light plane crashes.

The National Safety Council had predicted a total motor accident toll of 250 for the long week-end.

shot to death, and one died when a timber fell from a truck and struck him.

D. A. Voorhees, about 25, was pronounced dead on arrival at Veterans' Hospital in Lisbon today from burns received Sunday night near Fort Worth when he attempted to blow air through fuel lines of his gasoline tank truck and fire resulted.

Jerry Hal Worth, 25, Dallas, was shot fatally in the left hip nearly today as he sat by his parked car in the White Rock area of Dallas.

See DEATHS, Page 5

Three persons died in a single Texas highway accident near Lufkin. They were Lee Roy Marler, 21, Houston; Paige Carver, Shreveport, La.; and D. D. Carver, also of Shreveport, victims of a two-car collision 15 miles south of Lufkin on Highway 39 early Sunday.

Mrs. D. D. Carver was critically hurt in the crash, and two other persons received lesser injuries.

Car Strikes Hog An officer investigating the accident said the Carver automobile struck a dead hog, went out of control and collided with the car in which Marler was a passenger.

The Carvers were traveling from Shreveport to Houston; the other vehicle was headed from Houston to Longview.

Another two-car collision three miles southwest of Greenville Sunday resulted in instant death for Forest Lawrence Walters, about 50, of Waco. C. A. Richardson of Waco, in the car with Walters, was taken to a Greenville hospital suffering grave internal injuries and head injuries. Haskell Johnson, about 35, discharged negro war veteran, who was alone in the other car, was rushed to the Veterans' Hospital at McKinney. His condition also was described as critical.

Johnson was driving toward Dallas and the other auto was traveling toward Greenville at the time of the accident, which occurred on a hill on the Dallas-Greenville highway.

At Fort Worth, an unidentified man was struck and killed by an plane. The plane was flying low over the highway and struck the car.

There was business as usual this morning, but employees were promised they could leave at noon to witness the U. S. president's arrival in his big plane, the Independence. The plane is too large for the Municipal Santos Airport and landed at the military air-drome of Ponta do Galeao across Guanabara Bay.

Tonight President Truman will pay an official visit to President Dutra at Catete Palace. That was the only official item on today's calendar.

Tomorrow, President Dutra will call for Truman at the embassy at 5:30 a. m. (EST) and together they will motor to the mountain resort of Quitandinha, where the U. S. president will speak to the Inter-American hemisphere defense conference's final session at about 8:30 a. m.

At noon, he will be host to conference delegates at luncheon aboard the Battleship Missouri, now anchored in Guanabara Bay. Later, the plane is to be in the present when the hemisphere defense treaty drafted at Quitandinha is signed at Itamaraty Palace, home of Brazil's foreign ministry.

THOUSANDS LINE RIO STREETS TO WELCOME VISITING U. S. CHIEF

TRUMAN TO SPEND WEEK IN SOUTH AMERICA AND ATTEND PARLEY CLOSING

By HOYT WAHLE
RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Sept. 1.—(AP)—President Truman landed at Ponta do Galeao Airport here at 2:47 p. m. (12:47 p. m. Eastern Standard Time) today and thousands of Brazilians lined the streets to welcome him.

Mr. Truman will spend a week in Brazil and address the closing session of the Inter-American Defense Conference at Quitandinha.

Brazilian and United States flags fluttered from almost every lamp post along the main street of Rio de Janeiro, the Avenida Rio Branco.

Dutra Awaits Truman President Eurico Gaspar Dutra reached the docks half an hour before Mr. Truman's big plane came down from a clear sky to the airport, across the bay from the city. Bands played martial music and troops smartly stood at attention along the route of the president.

The reception was expected to be as great as that accorded President Roosevelt in 1938. Rio de Janeiro had a holiday atmosphere.

Rain had been forecast, but the sun broke through the overcast sky during the late morning.

Mrs. Truman and Miss Margaret Truman, daughter of the president, accompanied the executive in the new DC-6, the Independence. Lt. Col. Henry T. Meyer, secretary of the mission, led the party.

Mr. Truman left Washington Sunday, spent the night in Trinidad and proceeded on to Rio de Janeiro today, stopping during the morning at Belen for fuel.

LABOR DAY.

I never see a temple spire
Or level road or cottage small Or smoke that comes from four-dry fire
But what I think behind them
all,
With willing heart and skillful
hands,
Faithfulness, some worker
stands.

I never see a jeweled ring
Or string of pearls or costly
dress
Or brooch or pin or anything
The women of the rich possess.
But what I see the workers fit
Who first designed and fashioned it.

I know there's nothing that I wear
Or need or use from day to day
My dwelling and the treasures
there
But someone's work is on display.
I read a book and through the lines
The genius of a worker shines.

I write this bit for Labor Day,
Which is for tollers set apart.
Though feeble seems the praise I pay
'Tis offered from a grateful
heart.
May love and laughter, rest and peace
Make this a happy holiday.

al Vladimir Kolchak. Then came Denikin, and finally Gen. Peter Wrangel. All had failed by 1920, but unfortunately all were aided by the British and French.
The Soviet rulers remember
this, and are inclined to suspect, in every dispute, that armed intervention is around the corner.

Kolchak was shot, Denikin and Wrangel escaped. After some years in France, Deni-kin came to the United States about a year ago. The arrival of the man who once was on every front page was barely noticed by any newspaper. He had the good sense to keep his mouth shut here. If he had indorsed either the Truman or the Marshall doctrine, that would have proved to the Soviets that the United States was their enemy.

Said the old-before-here-
years college freshman the other day: "I think most children's problems are parent problems." She was one of three or four young people sipping cokes on the porch on a hot day. They were discussing serious matters in the solemn fashion
youth adopts but which oldsters seldom give them credit for. The girl backed up her point by telling how her room-mate was kept in constant dither because her mother was never quite satisfied with the grades she made, though they were better than average.

A boy at the end of the table admitted he was going to college because his father wanted him to, but "I'd a lot rather have a job in Dad's shop." Further instances were cited of friends whose parents were constantly quarreling, making home for their offspring a place to be avoided. The silent girl among them was the one whose father had left her mother and married his secretary.

Most parents try "to give their children everything,"
and most of them do a pretty good job, by and large,
of raising their families. But now and then, especially with all this talk floating around about juvenile misbehaving, maybe it would be well to realize that young people have their troubles,
too; often caused by improperly solved parent
problems.

THE FRUIT OF THE TREE

It is obviously a great and stirring thing to have 92
airplanes competing in a race for supremacy, of a sort never dreamed of in ancient days, or even in our present era. Speed has always had a fascination for men who were capable of producing it, and likewise for others lacking such power. Dull indeed is the man whose blood fails to flow faster in such contests with Father
Time as the powerful planes now present, in one form and another, to nearly all the world.

Yet there comes to mind a curious fact. It is the reputed comment of an elderly gentleman who mildly passed up an opportunity to see a famous horse race with the comment: "It is not unknown to me that one horse can run faster than another."
And there are similar philosophers today who

smile and remain unmoved
by our great feats of aviation, looking to the human mind for superior matters.

FACTUAL EVIDENCE

Most of the important
aims and attributes of life are intangible and therefore difficult to depict — things
like patriotism, contentment,
freedom, thrift, friendship,
democracy. The enterprise
known as the Freedom train,
which starts next month
from Philadelphia, is an effort to make more real some of these abstractions, particularly those that have made the historic Anglo-Saxon tradition what it is.

Sponsored by the American Heritage Foundation, a voluntary non-profit group,
the Freedom Train actually is to be a traveling museum of democracy. It will carry such papers as the Declaration of Independence, the original manuscript of the Bill of Rights, the Lincoln Cathedral copy of England's Magna Carta, the copy of the United States Constitution that has George Washington's notes on it, the manuscript of Lincoln's proclamation that freed the slaves.

From New England south
and westward, 300 communities will be visited in all 48 states and 29,000 miles covered. The crowds who will view the exhibits will see first hand those documents that remain ageless witnesses to the men who worked for the highest ideas of western civilization.

WHO WILL IT BE?

The one thing certain about the 1948 Republican convention is that it will take more ballots than the Democratic. In the present century this has been true only in 1940, when Thomas E.
Dewey and Robert A. Taft led on the early ballots, but the prize went to Wendell Willkie on the sixth.

Next year it will take 547
votes to choose a candidate.
Dewey and Taft are thought to divide 750 votes between them, with Dewey rather in the lead. The rest will be divided up among the favoring sons. Such heavy-voting states as Pennsylvania, California, Massachusetts, and Michigan will back some son of their soil, hoping for an eventual deadlock and a turning to some one outside of the big two. That was how Harding was nominated.

Sticking to a favorite son
too long may be a disastrous party maneuver. The 1924 Democratic convention that ran to 103 ballots and ruined election prospects owed its length in part to the obstinacy of the favorite sons and their backers, who would

HITTING THE NAIL ON THE HEAD

not yield to either of the two leaders, William M. Mc-Adoo and Al Smith. The requirement that the winner must get two thirds of the convention was of course the prime cause. The Republicans are fortunate in never having adopted this calamitous provision.

MERCHANTS OF DEATH

The best news from Germany in a long while is that the heads of the Krupp armament firm have been indicted for aid to Hitler.
They were in fact aids without whom he could not have carried on, just as they were essential parts of the German war machine from 1914
to 1918.

They are not the only munition makers who have played a sinister part in international affairs. The French firm of Schneider-Creusot fomented rumors of war to increase its business, and had connections with German munition industry
as well, so that its loyalty to France was more than suspected. Then there was the late Sir Basil Zaharoff, born
in Turkey of Greek parents,
a seller of big guns to Balkan states and finally a member of the great British armament firm of Vickers.

So far all have escaped scot-free. The indictment of Krupp is ground for hoping that their spell has lost its charm.

UNITED DEFENSE

In the general treaty now proposed by the United States for this hemisphere, Uncle Sam gets down to brass tacks. Neutrality would be definitely abandoned in case of war and the whole group of American nations would conduct themselves as a unit for the defense of our hemisphere.

This proposal, made by secretary of State George C.
Marshall, now in Brazil, is one of the first fruits submitted to our Latin-American neighbors for mutual safety and co-operation. It seems desirable, and even inevitable, that there should be such a tightening of mutual co-operation, in the present state of the outer
world.

Some Americans will object on account of the traditional policy of this country, which prided itself on "freedom for all and entangling alliances w i t h
none." But "new occasions teach new duties; time
makes ancient good uncouth." Our country has to march with the times.

Not the least cause for the British having run so quickly through their loan from Uncle Sam is that prices have risen in this country. Some estimates state that Britain can now buy only 40 per cent of what she could have obtained
when the loan was first negotiated. Our high prices have long been known to be doing us no good. Evidently their harm does not stop with our borders.

It is an ominous sign of fall, soon to be followed by winter, when the first football is seen on the playgrounds.

It will take 50 years, according to experts, to cart off the ruins of Berlin. How long will it take to get rid of the Nazis?

Sure, Britons never will be slaves. But they can pile up a sad lot of debt amounting to about the same thing.

Maybe if Americans
would stop telling the British what to do, we'd all get somewhere.

HIGH SCHOOL TIGERS
LEAVE FOR TRINIDAD
SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Football training opened this morning on three gridirons as Corsicana clubs in as many classifications inaugurated the official gridiron sessions.

Corsicana High School Tigers, favored in some quarters as the titlist
in the torrid District 10-AA campaign, two buses load, left Corsicana early Sunday afternoon for Trinidad where they will undergo a week's intensive training under the direction of Coach Boyd Payne and his assistants, Garland Matthews and Otis Pederson, beginning with a Monday morning drill. Two practice sessions are scheduled each day this week. They will return to Corsicana in time to enroll in school next week.

The coaching staff is not waiting any time in whipping their charges into condition for the gruelling season that finds the Junglebeasts opposing some of the stronger clubs of the state in addition to the regular District 10-AA conference attractions.

Eleven Lettermen
Corsicana has eleven lettermen
returning from the 1946 squad, along with flocks of squadmen and in several instances are regarded as strong contenders for starting berths this fall.

The Tigers open their season
here Sept. 19 against the Crozier Tech (Dallas) Wolves, followed by Greenville, Fort Worth Tech and Palestine in non-conference attractions.

Navarro Junior College Bulldogs opened their drills today as they prepared to make their first bid for the championship of the Texas Junior College conference. Coach Ken Clark will have an assistant this year in Guyie Askridge, and has most of his 1946 stalwarts back in addition to recruits from Central Texas high schools. The Bulldogs played an independent schedule last year since the school opened too late to enter the regular conference circles.

A tough schedule faces the Bul-
dogs this season.

The third Corsicana aggregation
that opened the football wars today is the State Home Laddies—a club
that may find itself the favorite to cop the District 23-B championship.

Coach John Corner has 13 lettermen and 27 squadmen from the 1946 season. State Home finished the regular schedule undefeated and untied last fall. Under district rules, however, the two top teams played for the district championship and the right to compete in the interscholastic league bi-district round. Kerens Bobcats, the second place club in the regular standing,
won over State Home for the title
after losing earlier in the season
in one of the hardest-fought battles seen in this section.

A letterman is available at each place of the Laddies starting lineup.
Coaches of the three aggregations
has been busy for some time getting the uniforms prepared and arranged for quick issuance today
and the starting of football practice.

Football will become the premier

CORPORATION COURT

The more commonplace type of sin—gambling, drinking and such—kept the police department fairly busy on a post-holiday weekend.

Two Negroes, identified with at 915 East Collin St. Sunday using a pair (or several pairs) of dice as chosen weapons. They lost at least $5 each when Kelsey Blakeney and P. B. Chapman, Jr., city policemen, and Deputy Sheriff R. E. Jones dropped in.

At about the same time two Negro women and a man let reason take flight, were arrested on affray charges. One of the women paid, the others went to jail.

A white man was still in jail Monday morning on drunkenness charges, and additional ones of bopping his wife a couple of times.

A man, his wife and his brother held a little reunion all their own in the city jail also after being arrested on drunkenness complaints.

Police reported Alvin Cephus, Negro, was arrested Sunday on a "jab wound" in his back. His wife was detained by the Sheriff's department. The cutting occurred in—of all places—Rhythm Grove.

Saturday saw two men arrested for fighting, a vag jailed, seven persons who lingered too long at a cheering bottle.

There were two minor street crashes over the week end.

Dentist officers were notified that a Negro man and woman wanted there on shoplifting charges were awaiting their arrival. They were jailed by city policemen over the weekend.

COUNTY BUDGET SET UP WITH 58-CENT TAX RATE; EXPENSES CUT

INDEBTEDNESS IN ROAD BONDS UNDER $1,000,000 FIRST TIME IN 20 YEARS

All salary increases requested for courthouse employees were rejected but a 15 percent increase in office supplies and stationery was granted when the commissioners met late Thursday to adopt the 1947 budget for departmental expenditures.

The tax rate was set at 58 cents per $100 valuation and is in addition to the road, levee and school districts (including the 20 cent Navarro Junior College tax recently voted).

No increases in the road district levies were made and in most instances a decrease was shown. The returns of the recent election were canvassed and declared.

Road Bonds
(The outstanding road district bonds in Navarro county as of June 30, this year, is $981,500, according to E. Cunningham, county auditor. This is the first time in more than 20 years that the outstanding bonds have been under $1,000,000.)

Following a conference in an ante room by the commissioners and the judge after most of the day had been spent in discussing requests for raises, etc., Judge L. T. Powell announced that the commissioners had voted to allow the sheriff and his deputies six cents mileage under the new law, the minimum; keep all salaries of deputies and assistants as they now exist, and allow a 15 percent increase in supplies and stationery costs.

No Salary Increases
The judges requested for slight salary increases in various departments, cut off the $3000 item requested by the sheriff for radio equipment, and in order to make the budget balance in the general fund, authorized the paying of $3,000 additional commissioners salaries out of the road and bridge fund instead of the general fund.

Half of the commissioners salaries are now to be paid from the general fund and the other half from the road and bridge.

The motion to adopt the budget was made by Commissioner Fred M. Copeland and was seconded by Commissioner Joe W. George.

All voted aye.

Road, Bridge Fund
Under the revised figures in the road and bridge fund after $10,000 of the request for radio equipment had been deleted, there is $129,100 to be divided as follows:

Precinct 1—(28 Pet)—$37,439.
Precinct 2—(23 2-3 Pet)—$30,554.33.
Precinct 3—(23 2-3 Pet)—$30,554.33.
Precinct 4—(23 2-3 Pet)—$30,554.33.

Special Road and Bridge Fund
(derived from the 15 cents maintenance tax voted last year and not spent—$57,000), divided as follows:

Precinct 1—$16,820.
Precinct 2—$13,726.33.
Precinct 3—$13,726.33.
Precinct 4—$13,726.33.

Salary Funds
Salary funds receipts are anticipated at $81,275.
The general fund anticipated receipts are $69,205 with $3,000 earmarked for transfer to the salary fund, leaving $66,205 available.

The 1948 tax rate:
General fund—25 cents.
Road and Bridge—15 cents.
Road and Bridge Special—15 cents.

Jury—1 cent.
Permanent improvement—2 cents.
Total—58 cents.

Returns canvassed and declared showed that there were 807 votes cast for the proposed school amendment and 1,223 against the measure last Saturday, while the optional road law was defeated with 778 voting for the proposition while 1,318 voted against it.

Kitchen Shower Is Compliment For Miss Jane Bonner

Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. A. H. Brewer, a kitchen shower was given, honoring Miss Jane Bonner, bride-elect of Terry Eugene Fluker, Jr., whose marriage will take place Sept. 4, 7 p. m. at First Presbyterian church.

Flowers for the occasion were seasonal summer flowers, and the bride-elect wore a corsage of white daisies.

Kisses Threatened, Girls Are Willing, Nothing Happened

B. C. (Buck) Smith, employee of the County ACA office in the courthouse here and a fast man at repartee, was at a loss for both an answer and action Friday.

He had just been informed that he would be transferred to the Bonham office in the near future as administrator. Smith is a married man, but he was telling some of the women employees, in his teasing manner, how he would hate to leave.

"I've got a notion to line all you girls up outside the door here and kiss you all goodbye," he said, and watched the blushes mount.

Shortly after he looked out the door and saw at least a dozen of them lined up watching him expectantly, and motioning for him to come out.

Smith didn't come out. All he did was blush.

HUNGARY

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE People's party was credited with 20 percent. Even the Communists allies the Social Democrats, accused the Communists of obtaining their vote by fraud. Other opposition parties said the Communists, who controlled virtually all trucks and other means of travel, had cast between 500,000 and 1,000,000 "false votes." The Communists replied in kind, accusing opposition parties of plural voting.

It was the second Hungarian election since the war. The Small Holders polled 57 percent of the last vote, but their regime was overthrown in a Communist coup during the summer. Even the most conservative politicians had anticipated a Communist victory yesterday and many predicted a more rigid police liquidation of opposition after the election formally was over.

In some villages, there was talk of civil war (even though the Russian army still occupied much of Hungary.)

Arab spokesmen promised that the seven-state Arab League would fight the report in the general assembly through its five U.N. members—Egypt, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia. One Palestine Arab threatened forceful resistance to any partition plan.

Jewish spokesmen made no comment. Both Jewish and Arab leaders favor Palestine independence, but only some of the Jews favor partition; Arab politicians have been solidly for an Arab Palestine.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE Mexico adheres "voluntarily" to the proposal that Italy be admitted as a member of the United Nations.

"We hold that Mexico should take part in establishing the basis for juridically restoring peace with Germany on an equal footing with the other participating states" except for points reserved for the big four.

Interest rates have been lowered to a maximum of 7 per cent. Mexico "clamped down temporarily on the imports of various articles" for dollar balance.

"The country already is emerging from the more acute period of monetary postwar readjustments."

Oil Payment Set. Mexico will pay "El Aguila" Petroleum company, subsidiary of Royal Dutch Shell $1,250,000 dollars plus 3 per cent interest annually for 15 years for expropriated property.

PRISONS

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE comply with state laws that provide that the purpose of punishment is to suppress crime and reform the offender. The present system does neither.

"There are more crimes committed in prison than outside," Wheat commented. "The worst type of criminals are permitted to escape daily."

"Nine out of ten men have become worse criminals by the time they are released, than they were when they entered. There is nothing in the system to inspire men to a better life."

"Chaplains and welfare workers are merely tolerated and there are some units where they dare not go at all."

Manufacturing Urged. He said that industries should be established to furnish manufactured articles to the inmates and other state institutions and at the same time provide needed training for the men so that they will have some means of earning a living when they are released.

Sufficient farming should be carried on to produce food for the inmates and to take care of surplus labor, he said.

"But there are few farmers in prison," he added. He said that it is not conducive to good morale, or efficient results, to have the men do work for which they are not do work in which they are not interested.

"The light of full publicity should be turned on the entire system," he said. "The curtains should be removed. Newspapers should have the same opportunities to publish news of what goes on inside the system as the outside."

People Should Have Facts. He said that prisons are public institutions and people should have all the facts without "censorship or supervision."

In concluding his letter to the board he said: "I have had great hopes that we could improve the system, but as long as it is used as a political football nothing can be accomplished."

As long as we become offended at the criticism at the legislative committee and the leading expert on penology, and merely deny that such conditions exist, Texas will remain at the foot of the class."

Members of the board were expected to take action on pay scale for guards and other prison employees.

"Conditions Deplorable." AUSTIN, Sept. 1.—(P)—Texas prison board members realize the state prison situation is "deplorable," although they refuse Penologist Austin H. McCormick's charges that it is the worst in 20 years.

Gov. Beauford H. Jester declared in a prepared statement to the press here yesterday.

The governor said he felt certain his Saturday meeting with the board "will prove to be another step in the direction of improving the state's penitentiary system."

GI BONDS

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE per. Debts, new clothing, delayed purchases probably were bidding for most of it.

Some of the veterans have already sold their bonds to sidewalk brokers at a discount. Others have been advanced money on them by friends who made no charges. In either instance, the man to whom the bond is made payable must come to the bank in person to receive the money. The paper is not transferable.

Corsicana banks insisted that veterans not known at their institution must bring with them someone who is known by members of the staffs. Discharge papers also must be presented.

MISS SHIRLEY GOINS IS WED TO G. H. WEATHERBY AT ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SATURDAY

Of interest to a wide circle of friends was the marriage of Miss Shirley Goins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Goins, to George H. Weatherby, son of Mrs. H. Weatherby and the late Mr. Weatherby, which was solemnized at St. John's Episcopal Church on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Robert Q. Kennaugh read the impressive ring ceremony before an altar outlined with huckleberry roping, and adorned with matching brass vases of white asters. Huge fan-shaped arrangements of white mums in gold urns marked the entrance to the chancel which was garlanded with huckleberry and illumined with gleaming white tapers. The main aisle of the church was bordered with wrought iron floor standards holding tall white tapers.

Miss Margaret Pannill was at the organ for a prelude of nuptial music and the traditional wedding polonies. She also accompanied the choir in renditions of "O Perfect Love," "Ave Maria" (Schubert) and "Response" by Lloyd Kerr. "Du Bist Meine Blume" by Lloyd Kerr and "Prelude" by Naylor were used as background music for the ceremony.

Escorted by Father the bride wore a gown of candlelight satin designed in princess mode with high fitted V-neckline, peplum sleeves, and pointed bodice and draped hip-line which extended into a cathedral train. Her full-length veil of misty white, imported illusion floated from a pill-box crown gemmed with seed pearls in leaf design. She carried a prayerbook arrangement of matched sun-burst orchids showered with ivory stephanotis and cascading satin ribbons.

Mrs. W. J. McKie, sister of the bridegroom, served as matron of honor, Miss Betty Smith was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Martha Giddens of Dallas, Miss Patricia Horn of Tulsa, Okla., and Miss Carolyn Bule.

They were gowned alike in Indies rose taffeta styled with dropped shoulder necklines defined with bertha of matching material, pointed bodice and padded hip-lines that terminated in skirts of unpressed pleats. Angel lilies adorned the bustle bows that extended to hemlines in the back, and their headresses were circular in design, lined with fuchsia and carried fans fashioned of fuchsia asters and angel lilies intermingled with matching net, and tied with pink satin streamers.

Jack R. Love, best man, and ushers were J. B. Dodson of Ft. Worth, Theo. Montfort, Kenward Sutton and John D. Goins, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother was attired in a two-piece dinner dress of emerald green crepe created with a draped neckline and long sleeves. A hat of gold feathers and green malines, and a corsage of gold gardenias completed her ensemble.

The bridegroom's mother chose beige crepe designed with draped skirt and enlivened with gold buttons. Further accents were provided by beige gloves, gold evening bag, and a corsage of gardenias. The bride's open-crown hat enhanced with fuchsia feathers and a corsage of fuchsia Etoile de Hollande rosebuds.

Reception at Country Club. A reception followed at the Corsicana Country Club. The bride's table, laid in candlelight satin, was centered with an antique silver wine cooler of white mums and carnations, accented at the base with clusters of white and soft illumination was provided by tall white tapers in silver candelabra. The bride's cake was a three-tiered confection, embossed with sugar-spun pink rosebuds and encircled with angel lilies.

Mesdames Thomas M. George, III, and Leon Levy served the cake. Mrs. Jack R. Love and Miss Jane Burris presided at the silver punch service, Misses Winfred Rankin and Carolyn Kelton had charge of the bride's book, Misses Bette Pierce and Ann Scarborough contributed a pianistic background, and Miss Cecile Anne Bryant of Tyler and Mesdames Wilbur Thompson, Jr., and Bobby Butler assisted in serving. After a wedding trip to the Southern coast, the couple will make their home at 2110 West 6th Avenue. For travel, the bride chose a navy gabardine suit with creme de cocoa off-the-face, open-crown satin hat, matching accessories and a corsage of sun-burst orchids.

The bride was graduated from Corsicana High School, and attended Gulf Park College, Gulfport, Miss. The bridegroom was graduated from Corsicana High School, served in the U. S. Coast Guard, and has been employed by the Alexander Motor Company for the past several years.

Out-of-Town Guests

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Carter of Grand Saline, Mesdames Lila Sims and Louise Jones of Winnebago, Mrs. Jennie Belle Burris and daughter, Jane, and Mr. and Mrs. Julius E. Dry of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Perkinson and family of Longview, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dodson, Ft. Worth.

Rehearsal Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell entertained with the rehearsal dinner at the Corsicana Country Club on Friday evening.

White asters and pink carnations adorned the festive board, and caricatures of the twenty-six guests, drawn by John Pugh, marked covers for members of the bridal party and immediate families.

Miss Shirley Evans Given Paderewski Piano Gold Medal

Miss Shirley Evans one of the city's most promising pianists, has been awarded the Paderewski Memorial Gold Medal by the National Guild of Piano Teachers for entering the National Piano Playing Tournaments and making a two-piece dinner dress of emerald green crepe created with a draped neckline and long sleeves. A hat of gold feathers and green malines, and a corsage of gold gardenias completed her ensemble.

Shirley was one of only six from coast to coast that attained this honor during the past year. Only eleven have received the national award in the past ten years.

Jack R. Love, president of the National Guild of Piano Teachers, said concerning the Paderewski Memorial Gold Medal: "Since Paderewski was perhaps the greatest of all past pianists when judged both as a man and an artist, and because his more than fifty years of concertizing in the United States made his name a household word signifying the best in artistic piano-playing, the National Guild of Piano Teachers saw fit to name its highest honor-roll award in honor of him, thus helping to perpetuate in this country the memory of this distinguished citizen of the world."

In a letter to Miss Wailman, president Allison said: "Shirley Evans and her parents, you as her teacher, and Corsicana as her home-town are all to be congratulated upon this national honor."

Shirley was one of only six from coast to coast that attained this honor during the past year. Only eleven have received the national award in the past ten years.

Author of 'The Week' By W. G. ROGERS

Peter Packer, author of "White Crocus," seems to have done a little bit of everything except pick a pack of pickled peppers. Born in London, in a house later destroyed by bombs, he worked as a junior customs clerk for a shipbroker, spent a year in the Canadian gold mines, was a farm hand and road laborer in New England, and all the time he kept writing. When he was 12 he won a prize for a story about an alley cat; made second place in a Canadian short-story contest, and has been published in the better American periodicals since he became a permanent resident of this country in 1938. He lives in Beverly Hills. Whittesey House already has given him a contract for a second novel, at present entitled "The Inward Voyage."

CORSICANA, TEXAS.
September 1, 1947.

To All Corsicana Servicemen

Dear Friends:

As you already know, The State National is prepared to cash your Armed Forces Terminal Leave Bond at any time from today on. As an agency of the Treasury Department, we are authorized to do this for you without charge. Of course we are always glad to help veterans whenever we have the opportunity. Because our wish is to be truly helpful, we urge you not to cash your bond unless and until it's absolutely necessary for you to do so. Your bond is one of the best investments in the world, safe, sound and accruing 2 1-2 per cent interest for you. It is like a check which you can cash whenever you need to, but unlike a check, it is earning interest in the meantime.

Our advice to you is to hold your bond until maturity, five years from date of issue. If it's not possible for you to do this, of course we'll cash it for you. Bring your original discharge paper or notice of separation with you—if you're not known at the bank, you will have to be identified by someone we know.

Sincerely yours,
H. Suttle Roberts
